

Language and cultural barriers for international students

Overwhelmed with real life experiences

Confusion with assignment instruction specifics

Lack of equipment, software and one to one attention in the online world of learning.

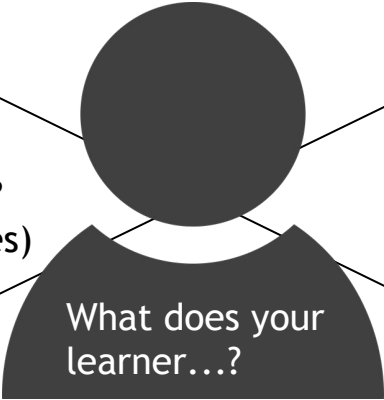

Think and Feel? (preoccupations)

A fear of asking for help

Hear? (influences)

See? (environment)

Too many steps to see/hear alternative methods of learning.

What does your learner...?

Lack of motivation due to online learning.

Say and Do? (behaviour)

A lack of schedule and poor time management skills.

Pain Points?

Online learning is difficult for many due to their learning style. Add in lack of the proper tools to access the curriculum content leads to lack of motivation

Poor organization and time management leads to late submission of assignments.

Gain Points?

Like the weekly Virtual Classroom on Bongo and the class assignments we would do during that time.

Allowing students to use their own devices to submit audio and video assignments for evaluation.
