

My Teaching Metaphor

I am a Professor for the Wireless Information Networking Program. The course has multiple hands-on exercises, assignments, research, and presentations. 90% of my students are International. My way of teaching them is engaging, interesting, entertaining, motivating, debating, discussing and presenting ideas.