

Documentation tool

CRAAP Test

Resource Title:

Manual Medicine

Resource URL:

<https://open.umich.edu/find/open-educational-resources/medical/manual-medicine>

Currency: The timeliness of the information: When was the resource published or posted? Has the resource been revised or updated? Does your topic require current information? Are the links functional?

Published December 4, 2013, updated March 24, 2021 This doesn't necessarily need to be current. The links are functional.

Relevance: The importance of the information for your needs Does the resource relate to your needs? Who is the intended audience? Is the information in the resource at an appropriate level for your learners?

Yes it relates to the lesson planned this week and is intended for students in the HCAM program and is appropriate for them.

Authority: The source of the information Who is the creator? What are their credentials or organizational affiliations? Are they qualified to write on this topic?

Amy Locke is a Clinical Assistant Professor of Family Medicine at the University of Michigan Medical School.

Accuracy: The reliability and truthfulness of the information Is the information supported by evidence? Has the resource been reviewed or refereed? Are there spelling, grammar, or typographical errors?

This is supported by evidence and is accurate.

Purpose: The reason the information exists Why does this resource exist? (to inform, teach, sell, entertain, or persuade?) Is the information fact, opinion, or propaganda? Are there political, ideological, cultural, religious, institutional, or personal biases?

This is intended to teach and is factual without any obvious biases.

Notes: Are there additional questions or observations you have about this material that affect your decision to use it? (i.e. this is an opinion piece that I will use to demonstrate one side of an argument).

Final Recommendation: Will you use this resource? Why or why not?

Yes I will use this as it is a useful resource for my students.