

Title - Lessons Learned as a female hockey player.

What are the lessons learned.

hockey = male stereotype

hockey is a male dominated sport. People think big and tough men.

A

The pinnacle for girls hockey is the olympics

highest level is olympics

the women boycotted. The USA hockey association listened. The pay was for women playing professional hockey

Women protested and $ increased

Some areas have all girl hockey leagues. She was able to play, made friends - that are like family.

more girls leagues

She has female role models that play hockey. She loves watching women's hockey and she referees.

=
more female role models

The NHL has started a female hockey advisory committee.

Women's NHL advisory committee

→ there are female announcers.

Summary

this conversation is about gender equity. lets break down barriers.