

Think and Feel?

“Overwhelmed by my schedule and what is expected of me”

“Very excited for the opportunity to further my education in Canada at SLC”

“Frustrated and stressed about not being able to keep up.”

“The campus (Kingston) is always so busy!”

“Do I belong here?”

“Some of our classes can be such a slog to get through, they’re just too long”

Hear?

See?

“Morning classes are the worst!”
Friends are trying to make sure they only attend classes post 12PM

“Blackboard is so overwhelming at times”

“Other students seem so confident and sure of themselves no matter the situation”

Say and Do?

“Lack of social life, I constantly tell me friends that I can spend time with them to meet my deadlines and job obligations”

“Exploring Kingston is quite fun, there is SO much to do!”

“No Friends In My Program”

Pain Points?

“Navigating Kingston can be very stressful with the current political climate”

“Digital delivery courses allow flexibility in my schedule”

Gain Points?

“I have many friends in the program”